

Greensboro is stronger when everyone is treated fairly.

“Martin Luther King Jr, once said that ‘injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.’ This is one statement that has truly guided how I have developed my sense of being and purpose through my life thus far. I truly believe that, although it may not be as popular or accepted at various crossroads, this statement can never lead you wrong. I am a Straight Ally because I believe not only in this statement but in basic human rights and the goodness and beauty in all people regardless of sexuality.”

— Melissa Johnson

“It is far from being revolutionary to simply ask that everyone be treated with dignity and respect.”

— Mathew Arbuckle

“No matter what one’s orientation is behind closed doors and sometimes possibly outdoors – we each are humans with the uncanny ability to contribute, to love and to be loved. Let us not waste the time to label, hate, or wound what we may not understand, but gear our hearts and open our minds to make a positive impact in our world, community, and each individual we have the opportunity to embrace, meet, or pass on the street.”

— Jennifer Leung

STRAIGHT

ALLIES

We’re straight, but not narrow.

That is why we, as straight people, speak out today for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people. We want to live in a community where unity and fairness are valued. Please join us in making this a reality because Unity Builds Our Community.
